Editorial

The end of our high school career has come. How proud we were in September to assume our new title and dignity! At some time or other during each day someone could be heard talking about that far-distant day when we would graduate—June seemed to us like a beacon, which beckoned bewitchingly in the distance, but which we approached slowly. Even two months ago, when talk about the actual graduation activities began, we could hardly believe that we were to graduate so soon. Commencement night will mark our last gathering together. Later, of course, there will be reunions; but our number will not be complete.

We go forth fully equipped to meet life, trained by three years in M. H. S. Physical, intellectual, moral and spiritual training have been ours to profit by if we would but grasp the golden opportunity. We believe we have! And the results of this preparation will be shown in the accomplishments of the Class of 1929! Now we sail out of the harbor, where we were sheltered by our parents, friends, and teachers, onto the deep, where we shall be responsible for ourselves. Be it our duty to sail our barks safely and courageously on the great sea of Life!

In this book are recorded many of the good times enjoyed during our senior year. Individual pictures, snap-shots, as well as the pictures of school teams, are included in the "Log". We who have worked on this book, hope that it will contain for you many pleasant memories of our last year together.

MARIE F. LEARY, Editor-in-Chief.

RUBY MAY AIKEN Ruby

We shall all miss Ruby and her clever remarks. We hope that she succeeds in the line of work that she has chosen.

Speaking Contest '27, '28, '29; Pro Merito; Book and Scroll Club '28; Refreshment Committee, Class Play; Refreshment Committee, Reception.

ELEANOR RICE AMES Wosie

Wosie, the most amiable girl in our class, always has a bright smile and ready good humor. We hope that Wosie will get over stamping her feet when taking dictation and transcribing her notes. Some day she will be a great actress, as everyone knows after seeing her as "Myra" in our class play.

Mother, Sophomore Class Play; Dance Committee '28; Ticket Committee, Reception; Secretary, Book and Scroll Club '28; Class Treasurer '29; Vice President, Pro Merito Society; Class Historian; Speaking Contest '29; "Myra", Senior Class Play; Alumni Editor, "The Log"; Class Motto Committee; President, Domestic Science Club '29.

ESTHER CHARLOTTE ANDERSON Esther

Couldn't you tell by looking at her picture that she is the most sociable girl in the class? We don't know what Esther is going to do, but we wish her success.

Usher, Class Play; Glee Club '28, '29; Book and Scroll; Decorating Committee, Reception.

HARRIET AGNES LOUISE BALL Pat

Harriet is one of our honor pupils. She was selected by the New Century Club to be an honorary member of their organization. This honor was conferred upon the two girls having the highest average during the junior year.

Class Treasurer '27; Class Play Committee '27; Glee Club '27; Ticket Committee, Reception '28; Press Club '28; Business Manager, "Green Parrot" '28; Treasurer, Press Club '28; Secretary and Treasurer, Pro Merito; Usher, Class Play; Banquet Committee '29.

RAYMOND MILTON BUCK Ray

Ray came to us in our junior year from Oliver Ames High School. He is a quiet boy, but well liked by his classmates. He wants to be an aviator, and we hope that he will be successful in his chosen work.

Science Club '29; Stage Properties Committee, Class Play.

ALICE MARY GIBB BURR Scotty

When you came to this picture, didn't you say to yourself, "I'm sure that this girl is the valedictorian"? Well, you're right, and we are proud of her. But don't think that all she does is to study. She has been prominent in the orchestra and in all good times as well. Alice is at present extremely interested in baby chicks. She believes in "knowing about your business"—Mr. Gregg doesn't publish his "Writer" for nothing.

Vice President '27; Refreshment Committee '27; Orchestra '27, '28, '29; Usher, Class Play; Reception Committee '29; President, Pro Merito Society '29; Banquet Committee.

HARRY LEON CAIN Harry

Harry is another quiet member of our class. We don't know much about his plans, but we predict a brilliant future for him in whatever line of work he chooses.

Debating Club '28; Stage Properties, Class Play.

JOHN JOSEPH CODY Cody

Johnnie Cody is one of the talented singers of the class, his specialty number being "It Ain't No Fault of Mine". Johnnie was an actor in the class play, taking the part of Thomas Hayden.

Debating Club '28; Decorating Committee, Reception; "Thomas Hayden", Class Play; Manager, Football '29.

MARION COONEY Cooney

Cooney is our wittiest girl. She has always had a very good imagination, which she has used to advantage during sixth and seventh periods.

"The Maid", Sophomore Class Play; Press Club '28; Proof Reader "Green Parrot" '28; Glee Club '28; Decorating Committee, Reception; Usher, Class Play.

ETHEL MAY CRUSER Cruser

This is Ethel. See her dimples? Well, they're about all there are in the class. Ethel is a bookkeeping shark as well as an expert stenographer. She is going to pull some lucky business house out of a slump, so that inside of a year it will be paying big dividends. Buy your stock early. Good luck, Ethel, we hope you'll have an appreciative boss.

Glee Club '28; Usher, Class Play '28; Sophomore Class Play Committee '27; Ticket Committee, Reception; Press Club '28; General News Editor of "Green Parrot" '28; Refreshment Committee, Class Play; Pro Merito Society; Statistician, "The Log".

OLYMPIA MARIE DePRIZIO Olee

"Olee" is going to publish two books, "Why Latin Should Be Studied in High School" and the "Pleasures Derived from Reading Caesar and Cicero." These will be written mainly to oppose Marie's literary efforts entitled, "Latin Should Be Studied in College Only" and "The Boredom of Reading Caesar and Cicero." These four books are the outcome of their endless debates about Latin.

Latin Club '28; Decorating Committee, Reception; Usher, Class Play '29; Banquet Committee '29.

HERBERT SPAULDING DUNBAR Pete

Pete has decided to become an aviator, so we expect to hear about him as the world's greatest aviator. We wish him success in his undertakings.

Science Club '29; Orchestra '27, '28, '29; Reception Committee, Advertising Committee, Class Play.

JENNIE RIPLEY FISKE Jennie

Jennie is the artistic member of our class. She is going to art school in the fall. Jennie took part in the class play. Do you remember her as Mrs. Quimby? Wasn't she good?

"Grandmother", Sophomore Class Play; Decorating Committee, Reception; Orchestra '28; "Mrs. Quimby", Class Play; Snap-shot Editor, "The Log".

ALICE ELSIE FORBES Allie

Allie, one of the cutest girls in the class, seems to abide by the motto "Always calm, cool, and collected". We wonder what Allie would do without her faithful sidekick, Ethel.

Refreshment Committee '27; Usher, Class Play '28; Refreshment Committee, Class Play; Press Club '28; Banquet Committee '29; Pro Merito Society.

CHARLOTTE ELINOR GRAHAM Elinor

We always see Elinor driving up Main Street on the car tracks, going about forty-five and with her car in second. Elinor expects to go to Burdett College. We wish her success in whatever she undertakes.

Christmas Party '27; Dance Committee, Reception; Properties Committee, Class Play; Press Club '28, '29; Ticket and Dance Committee, A. A.

CHARLOTTE MARCELLITE GREANY Chic

Chic is going to be a teacher. She expects to go to Boston Teachers' College in the fall. We know that she will be successful.

Latin Club '29; Usher, Class Play; Ticket Committee, Reception; Pro Merito Society.

IRVING GREEN Greenie

Is he popular? Such a silly question! Of course he is or we wouldn't have elected him our president for three years. His favorite color is red—why, we can't imagine. We hear that he is going to be a lawyer, and we predict that he will become famous.

Class President '26, '27, '29; "Bob", Sophomore Class Play; Reception Committee and Advertising Committee, Reception; Boys Glee Club '28; President, Debating Club '28; Basketball letter '28; Treasurer, Press Club '29; Club Editor, "Green Parrot"; Basketball Letter and Captain '29; "Magee", Class Play; Class Play Committee; Banquet Committee; Business Manager, "The Log"; Presentation of Class Gift.

DORIS MARIE GRIFFEN Dot

Doris has lately acquired a mania for "Dutch" dolls. Although she goes with the most talkative girl in the class, Doris is evidently not affected by Rosie.

Dance Committee '27; President Journalism Class '28; Refreshment Committee, Reception '28; Press Club '28; Glee Club '28; Usher, Class Play '29; Domestic Science Club '29; Pro Merito Society.

FRANK TABER GRISWOLD Punkie

Punkie is one of the strong, silent men from the West (Mansfield). Punkie played in the line in football,—and how the other side hated to see him coming!

Debating Club '28; Football '29; Usher, Reception; Science Club '29; Athletic Editor, "The Log"; Stage Properties, Class Play.

JOHN DANFORTH HOLMES Holmesie

Well, at least there is one person in our class who will do something in the agricultural world. Johnnie is going to perfect the seedless cucumber. However, his side line will be to teach the Nortonites how to be up-to-date and still preserve their simplicity.

Glee Club '28, '29; Usher, Reception; Stage Properties, Class Play; Assistant Advertising Manager, "The Log."

HENRY STAINSLAW HOUGHTON Hennie

Hennie is the most athletic boy in the class. Do you remember him as the big, handsome officer in "Seven Keys to Baldpate"? We wondered for a while why he went to school at 7:30 A. M., but now we know that he must hike around the block before school. Hennie will probably be a cowboy and live on a ranch.

Football letter '27, '28, Captain '29; Basketball '28, '29; Debating Club '28; Usher Reception; Refreshment Committee, Reception; Decorating Committee, Reception; Baseball '29; Officer, Class Play; Science Club '29.

JOHN IRVIN HOUGHTON Johnnie

Johnnie is only one of his nicknames. Bump and Caesar (small but mighty) are the other two. We would like to know where the "calf" that we hear so much about came from. Bump was such "a good little mayor" in the class play that he will probably hold that office some day in a city like Mansfield.

Class President '28; Secretary, A. A. '28; President A. A. '29; Press Club '28, '29; Debating Club, '28; "Mayor Cargan", Class Play; Pro Merito Society; Manager, Basketball '29; Advertising Manager, "The Log".

BERNARD EUGENE JALBERT Brownie

Brownie is as good an actor as he is an athlete. Aside from being in our class play, he was chosen to take part in the Teachers' Club play. He is going to be Superintendent of the Light Department and show the town how to economize by spending less money for electric light bulbs.

Baseball Letter '27, '28; Football '28, '29; Basketball '28, '29; Press Club '28, President '29; Sporting Editor "Green Parrot" '28; Advertising Committee, Reception; Usher, Reception; "Bland" Class Play.

GRETCHEN EDNA KNIGHT Gretch

Gretch is one of our scholarly students. She has devoted herself to studies and is going to be a stenographer. She has worked very hard during her three years in high school, and we wish her success.

Refreshment Committee, Class Play; Usher, Senior Class Play; Usher, Speaking Contest; Alumni Notes, "The Log"; Pro Merito Society.

MARIE FRANCES LEARY Marie

Here is Marie, the most energetic girl in the class. She deserves this title because of the efficient way in which she handled the editing of "The Log". Marie holds the girls' record for dashing down two flights of stairs to the lunch counter, and being nearly the first one in line. She is going to remodel the fashions for high school girls in the future.

Class Ring Committee '27; Manager, "Sauce for the Goslings"; Press Club '28, '29; Assistant Editor, "Green Parrot" '28; Glee Club '28; Editor-in-Chief, "Green Parrot" '29; Chairman, Decorating Committee, Reception; Class Play Committee; "Mrs. Rhodes", Class Play; Editor of "The Log"; Class Treasurer for A. A.; Class Basketball '29; Speaking Contest '29; Pro Merito Society; Franklin History Medal.

CHRISTINE MARGARET MARTIN Christine

Christine is our honor Latin pupil, having the highest average for four years of Latin. We've never seen her yet without books, and her supply of information on about all subjects is inexhaustible.

Glee Club '27; Pro Merito Society.

JESSICA PERSIS MARTIN Jessica

Jessica came to us from Warren, R. I. She was voted the quietest girl in the class, but we think that if she had been with us longer, she would have succumbed to our ways.

ALBERT EDWARD McGOLDRICK Mac

Our prize speaker. Albert is a very ambitious boy, and sometime in the near future will surprise the scientific world by discoveries made in the laboratory of Smith Drug Co.

Speaking Contest, '27, '28, '29; Debating Club '28; Usher, Reception; "Max" Class Play; Pro Merito Society; Press Club '29; Business Manager, "Green Parrot" '29; Advertising Staff, "The Log"; Class Motto Committee; Class Prophet; Second Prize in Singleton Speaking Contest, '29.

CAROL EDSON MacRAE Carol

Carol came from way out in Colorado, and we love to hear her talk. We had decided, after the class play, that acting was her element; but basketball season made us change our minds, and now we think that she is the best all round girl.

Book and Scroll Club '28; "Mary", Class Play; Basketball, '29; Class Basketball '29; Usher, Basketball Reception '29; Class Poet.

IRENE CONSTANCE MORSE Irene

Irene, we hear, is going to be a hair-dresser. If she makes other people's hair look as well as she does the "Gang's", we know that she will be the most popular hair-dresser in Massachusetts.

Basketball Letter '28, Capt. '29; Treasurer, A. A. '28; Secretary, Class '28; Glee Club '28; Usher, Basketball Reception '29; Decorating Committee, Reception '28; Class Ring Committee; Press Club '28; Vice-President '29; Social Editor "Green Parrot" '28; Chairman Properties, Class Play '29.

MADELEINE MARY MORSE Mike

Mike is one of our most talented stenographers. After a course in Chandler's Secretarial School, she plans to be a private secretary. Some businessman will be lucky.

Advertising Committee, Class Play; Usher, Speaking Contest '29; Glee Club '28; Press Club '28; Pro Merito Society; Ticket Committee, Reception.

MILDRED ELLEN NORDBERG Milly

Mildred is our salutatorian. Remember the thrilling stories she used to write? "Milly" is a stenographer at the Foxboro State Hospital.

Salutatorian; Pro Merito Society; Refreshment Committee, Reception; Vice-President, Press Club '28; Glee Club '28; Refreshment Committee, Class Play.

DOROTHY ALICE O'CONNOR Dot

Dot is one of the members of the "Gang". She and Thelma can be seen laughing at some joke almost every time you look at them. "Dot" may become President of the Twist Drill Company in Taunton.

Press Club '28, '29; Alumni Editor, "Green Parrot" '28; Glee Club '28; Decorating Committee, Reception; Basketball Letter '28, '29; Captain, Class Basketball '29; Sporting Editor, "Green Parrot" '29; Pro Merito Society; Athletic Editor, "The Log".

NICHOLAS PAZSIT Nickie

Nickie has not interested himself much in social affairs until this year. He took the part of "chief of police" in the class play. Shall you ever forget when he opened the package and found it was Red Arrow money? "Nickie" is also an honor pupil.

Debating Club '28; Chief of Police, Class Play; Pro Merito Society.

THEODORA PENESIS Ted

Ted is the inspiration for "Mansfield's Soda Shieks." She is one of our best typists, and a talented musician.

Decorating and Refreshment Committees, Reception; Literary Club '28; Exchange Editor, "Green Parrot" '28; Glee Club '28; Usher, Class Play; Science Club '29; Pianist, Chorus '29; Pianist, Orchestra '27, '28, '29.

GEORGE JEFFERIES PRITCHARD Pritch

This is Marshall's side-kick. Wherever you find one, you'll find the other—even in Norton! George is as interested in music as Marshall is and some day hopes to have an orchestra of his own.

Dance Committee, Reception; Chairman, Usher Committee; Orchestra '29; Stage Manager, Class Play.

RUTH EMILIE RANKIN Ruthie

Ruth is one of our quiet, deep-thinking girls. One of her greatest gifts is her ability to see a joke instantly. She is musical, studious, well-liked, and has a sunny disposition. Such a person will succeed. We know that our loss means Rochester University's gain.

French Club '28; Decorating Committee, Reception; Pro Merito Society; Science Club '29; Properties Committee, Class Play; Orchestra '29.

ROSE MARIE ROMAN Rosie

Rosie is the most talkative girl in the class. We wonder where she gets all those great long words, but we have a faint suspicion that she has a "reading acquaintance" with Noah Webster.

Glee Club '28; Secretary, Book and Scroll Club '29; Class Basketball Team '29; Usher, Class Play; Pro Merito Society; Joke Editor, "The Log".

EDWARD SEHRON Barney

'Member the good hick Barney made in the Class Play? Wasn't it funny when he slid across the stage and couldn't stop? He has been an ardent athlete, attending practice faithfully.

Baseball '28, '29; Usher, Reception; Decorating and Refreshments Committees, Reception; Football '29; "Elijah Quimby", Class Play; Science Club '29.

HELEN MAY SHEPARD Helen

Helen is going to be a teacher. Wouldn't you like to go back to school again? How interesting she will make French and Chemistry! Good luck to you, Helen.

Vice-President, Latin Club '28; Decorating Committee, Reception; Chairman, Ticket Committee, Class Play; Science Club '29; Banquet Committee; Pro Merito Society.

MARSHALL OTIS SHEPARDSON Marshie

"Da-da, da-da." You're right—Marshie's around somewhere, either practicing a new song or cheering someone up. He's very much interested in all kinds of music, as well as in science. "Where there's a will, there's a way" —Marshie will be in "Who's Who" very soon if he keeps up being brilliant.

Orchestra '28, '29; Vice-President, Science Club '29; Light and Music, Class Play; Properties Committee, Sophomore Class Play; Usher and Orchestra Committee, Reception; Joke Editor, "The Log"; Music to Class Poem; Pro Merito Society.

NANCY TURNER TREEN Nancy

Nancy is a sweet, demure miss, whose interests are centered around West Mansfield. We hear that she is going to Burdett and wish her success. Nancy holds the unusual record of never having been absent, tardy, or dismissed from the first grade through High School.

Glee Club '28; Book and Scroll Club '28, '29.

MARION LOUISE VALENTE Clara

Of course everybody knows that Marion's chief weakness is dancing and after that something else that has plenty of action, such as basketball. Whenever there is something to be done and no one to do it, she steps forward and fills the gap. She's one of those people who accomplish much without seeming to do anything. When you look at the list of committees she has served on, then you know that she must be one of the reasons that made everything our class attempted such a success. Good luck to you, Marion, in anything you decide upon for your life's work.

Secretary, Class '27, Treasurer, Class '27, Vice-President, Class '29; Press Club '28, Secretary '29; Sporting Editor, "Green Parrot" '28; General News Editor, "Green Parrot" '29; Glee Club '28; Pro Merito Society; Assistant Director, Class Play; Basketball Letter '29; Class Basketball Team '29; Usher, Basketball Reception '29; Dance Committee, Reception; Class Play Committee; Statistician, "The Log".

THELMA SCOTT WILLIAMS Thel

Thel is the most popular girl in the class, and one of the best looking. Her laugh is famous and can be heard even at the most dramatic moments. If it wasn't for Thel, we are sure our school days would not be so bright as they have been.

Treasurer, Class '26; Treasurer, Class '27; Vice-President, Class '28; Acceptance Class Gift '28; Decorating Committee, Reception '28; Chairman, Advertising Committee, Class Play '28; Secretary, Class '29; Usher, Basketball Reception '29; Manager, Basketball '29; Vice President, A. A. '29; Class Basketball Team '29; Pro Merito Society.

EDITH MIRIAM CONROD Edith

Edith is going to be a nurse. Wouldn't you like to be sick and have her take care of you? She is also very much interested in domestic science.

Press Club '28; Domestic Science Club '29; Pro Merito Society.

RUTH ELNORA RING Ruthie

Ruth is noted for her quiet ways and pleasant disposition. We hear that she is going to be a hair-dresser, and we all wish her success in any line of work that she undertakes.

Glee Club '28; Decorating Committee, Reception.

KENNETH HAWKINS ROONEY Kennie

Kennie came to us from Walpole this year. We don't know much about his plans except that we hear he is going to Worcester Polytechnic School. We wish him success in his life's work.

Assistant Stage Manager, Class Play; Officer, Class Play; Science Club '29; Science Club Dance Committee '29.

History of the Class of 1929

By ELEANOR R. AMES

In September, 1926, we entered Mansfield High School as sophomores. We chose for officers to serve during this eventful year: Irving Green, President; Alice Burr, Vice-President; Lawrence Barrows, Secretary; and Thelma Williams, Treasurer. We were represented in athletics this year by Jalbert, who won a letter in baseball, and H. Houghton, who won a letter in football.

Soon we were proudly displaying our class rings, happy in the realization that we were the first sophomore class to have that privilege.

The most successful event of the year was our sophomore class play, given on April 26, in the high school gymnasium. Miss Lyman, our English instructor, coached the play, which was entitled "Sauce for the Goslings". The cast included Ruby Aiken, Jennie Fiske, Marion Cooney, Warren R. Jones, Jr., Irving Green, Bernard Jalbert, and Eleanor Ames. It was very successful and was well patronized by students, faculty, and alumni.

The Preliminary Speaking Contest was also held in April. Ruby Aiken and Albert McGoldrick represented the class this year.

June brought our Sophomore year to a close.

Then came September, 1927, the month to return and to take up our studies as juniors. Election time also arrived, and the following officers were elected for the year: John Houghton, President; Thelma Williams, Vice-President; Irene Morse, Secretary; and Marion Valente, Treasurer.

In February we gave a dance, which was very successful.

In April the Preliminary Speaking Contest was held in the Town Hall. Ruby Aiken, Irving Green, and Albert McGoldrick again represented the class. McGoldrick won second place for the boys.

Again we were prominent in athletics, and several of our members won letters. Dorothy O'Connor and Irene Morse were awarded letters in girls' basketball; while in baseball, Jalbert and Sehron were successful. In football, Jalbert and H. Houghton, and in basketball, Jalbert, Green and H. Houghton were the winners.

Then in June we held the annual prom in honor of the graduating class. After considering several well-known orchestras, we finally decided to employ the services of Bernard Loring and his assistants. The reception was most satisfactory, owing to the efficient committees in charge, under the supervision of our faculty adviser, Mr. James Kelly. Another school year closed, and we received the usual two months' vacation.

In September we returned again to our studies as seniors. This was the year to which we had been looking forward for several years.

At our first class meeting we elected officers for 1928 and 1929 as follows: Irving Green, President; Marion Valente, Vice-President; Thelma Williams, Secretary; and Eleanor Ames, Treasurer.

Our first activity was the senior class play, which was presented on Thanksgiving evening in the Town Hall before a large audience. "Seven Keys to Baldpate" was one of the most successful of the recent high school productions, thanks to the efforts of the cast and the coach, Professor Connor.

We were well represented this year in the Preliminary Speaking Contest. Four of our members, Ruby Aiken, Marie Leary, Albert McGoldrick, and Eleanor Ames, were selected to compete. McGoldrick won first place for the boys in the preliminaries and second place for boys in the Singleton Contest.

Mr. Robinson announced that twenty-one of our class had earned membership in the Pro Merito Society. That is the largest membership in the history of the society in Mansfield High School. Those who were admitted to membership were Ruby Aiken, Harriet Ball, Alice Burr, Ethel Cruser, Alice Forbes, Charlotte Greany, Doris Griffin, John Houghton, Gretchen Knight, Marie Leary, Christine Martin, Albert McGoldrick, Madeleine Morse, Mildred Nordberg, Dorothy O Connor, Nicholas Pazsit, Ruth Rankin, Rose Roman, Marion Valente, Thelma Williams, and Eleanor Ames. The Pro Merito Society chose these officers: Alice Burr, President; Eleanor Ames, Vice President; and Harriet Ball, Secretary-Treasurer.

Athletics must be mentioned as one of the most successful activities of our senior year.

Our basketball team won the championship of the Hockamock Basketball League, and also first place in Class B of the basketball tournament held in Brockton. Mansfield High School was so proud of the boys that we gave a reception and dance in their honor at the Town Hall. The players received gold basketballs, and the school received a silver cup. The seniors who played on the team were Captain Irving Green, Manager John Houghton, Henry Houghton, and Bernard Jalbert. In football Captain H. Houghton, Manager Cody, Jalbert, Dunbar, and Sehron received letters. The baseball season will soon be ended, and Captain Jalbert, H. Houghton, and Sehron will receive letters. The girls on the basketball team who received class numerals were Dorothy O'Connor, Thelma Williams, Marie Leary, Marion Valente, Rose Roman, and Carol MacRae. The following girls also received the school letter: Captain Irene Morse, Manager Thelma Williams, Dorothy O'Connor, Marion Valente, and Carol MacRae.

Tonight we begin the last chapter of our class history. We are looking forward to graduation night as the one goal for which we have worked during our high school life.

As each starts out to write his own history on the pages of Life, may success and honor crown his efforts.

Prophecy of the Class of 1929

By ALBERT E. McGOLDRICK

It was the evening of June 18, 1940, a foggy dark day in London. As I was finding my way along Fleet Street after a hard day in my laboratory, a man coming along, evidently in a great hurry, crashed into me. In surprise and indignation I looked at him. Could I believe my eyes? It was my old friend Johnny Holmes, who, I later found out, was on a week-end trip to Wales in the interest of the Mansfield Cucumber Growers' Association.

I rushed him into a nearby inn and we sat down.

"Well, John, this is a great pleasure," I said. "It is eleven years since I last saw you. Tell me, how are things at home?"

"Oh, things have changed a lot. Our class is all broken up; its members are scattered all over the world.

"Edward Sehron is now in India, the proprietor of a huge dictionary factory. It is said that he is starting a new dictionary, entitled Barney's Revised Pronounciations.

"One of the world's champion typists is Alice Burr, a winner of many medals, and sole proprietor of the Kentucky Wonder Chickery in Cuba.

"Raymond Buck is right near-by in France, the president of the Trans-Oceanic Air Lines, connecting Europe and America. Herbert Dunbar has also become interested in aviation, and with Buck is planning a flying trip, in their two seated Curtiss plane, to the moon."

"Yes, but surely some of our former classmates have become successful at home?" I interrupted.

"Oh, certainly," John replied. "Rose Roman now heads a large dancing ballet troupe, that is playing before crowded halls along Broadway.

"A bill has just been introduced into Congress by John Cody, now a prosperous West Mansfield farmer, asking for an increase of three cents in the tariff on Argentine turnips.

"George Pritchard and Marshall Shepardson have become world famous as the alternate leaders of the Sargent Brass Band, now touring the States on funds raised by popular subscription.

"Olympia DePrizio, a great lover of Latin, as you know, is teaching at Wheaton College. Olympia intends, in the near future, to put on the market her book The How's and Why's of Teaching Latin

"The Sears Roebuck Stores of Boston boast the management of Miss Madeleine Morse, the winner of the title 'The World's Most Accurate Stenographer,' which is given every year by the O-Hook Short-hand Company of Providence.

"Frank Griswold, commonly known as Punk, has established a bus service between West Mansfield and Mansfield. His motto is 'Service! When you want it and while you want it.'

"The title of Chief Usher at the Copley Plaza Hotel in Boston has been conferred upon Harriet Ball. Her favorite occupation is the making of seating plans for banquets.

"Nicholas Pazsit, a graduate of the Bentley School of Accounting, has just become a certified public accountant and is opening a suite of offices on Tremont Street, in Boston.

"Ethel Cruser, Alice Forbes, Doris Griffin, and Ruby Aiken are touring the United States in the interest of the J. A. Whitney Co., instructing and pointing out to an unbelieving world, the advantages of its bookkeeping system.

"And, of course, you remember Marie Leary. Well, she is now editor of the 'Foxboro Gazette.' Her success, she says, was acquired through the rough experiences of editing the 'Green Parrot' in 1929."

"But John," I interrupted, "what has happened to Marion Cooney and Charlotte Greany?"

"Oh! Marion is an experienced aviatrix, a holder of the women's endurance record, a stunt flyer of some fame, and noted for her nerve. She intends this summer to try a non-stop flight around the world in her six motored plane.

"Charlotte is a teacher of Latin in the John Green Normal School, where she is seeking to drive home to a somewhat doubtful class the principles of conjugating Latin verbs.

"Mr. Henry Houghton, a graduate of Technology, who back in our school days expressed great admiration for the deeds of Columbus, Amundsen, and DeSoto, has decided, along with Mr. Harry Cain, who is representing the National Geographic Society, to put himself on the pages of history by conducting an exploration trip through the wilds of the Amazon River, in search of the long missing white squaws, who, Houghton declares, have been seen by some white men who have been in this district.

"Bernard Jalbert has become very successful as an athlete. Brownie is now pitching for the New York Yankees, and fast rising to fame and fortune.

"Nancy Treen and Ruth Ring have started a tea room in West Mansfield, which has become very prosperous through the trade of friends in their own large home town.

"Eleanor Graham has a good position on the information staff of the 'Brockton Times.'

"The position of head bookkeeper in the Foxboro Company is filled by Gretchen Knight.

"Irving Green was graduated from the Harvard Law School in 1934, and at present is District Attorney of Chicago. Through his untiring and ceaseless prosecution, he has made the city a safe place for the general public.

"Jennie Fiske and Esther Anderson are working for the Collect All Debt Co., of Attleboro. Through their cunning and winning ways they have gained the title of Attleboro's best and fastest collectors of debts of all kinds.

"Jessica Martin is employed as a private stenographer for the Young Women's Christian Association in Boston.

"Kenneth Rooney, the inventor of the Rooney noiseless airplane motor, recently made public a statement to the effect that he would soon let loose upon the unsuspecting world his latest and best invention, the Ken Powderless shotgun.

"Christine Martin is now the advertising agent for the Southern Pacific Railroad, and is also the editor of the 'Atlanta Weekly'."

"Well John," I interrupted, "that is certainly great, but what has happened to Eleanor Ames?"

"Eleanor Ames? Oh, yes. Well, Eleanor, who has often said she loved the acting of fine deep parts, is very successfully assuming the role of Eliza in her race across the ice floes, in Pastime's latest picture, 'Uncle Tom's Cabin.'

"Carol MacRae, who, you know, was always a lover of basketball, is now an instructor in this sport at the Great Oak Prep School, in Maryland.

"Thelma Williams is head waitress at Thompson's Spa, in Boston. She recently upheld her title as Boston's best looking waitress by winning the title over fifteen other contestants from Boston's leading hotels.

"Edith Conrod is proprietress of the famous Grand View Inn, noted for its fine dinners and its chocolate specialties.

"Irene Morse has conducted a very successful school for struggling young dancers in Boston, and because of her success in this, her chosen field, has decided to go onto the professional stage. If she makes a success of it, she will go in search of new fields to conquer.

"Mildred Nordberg, a pupil of the great scientist, Einstein, has just edited a new series of bookkeeping books, which Mildred maintains, as Einstein does, must be understood to be appreciated.

"Dorothy O'Connor is an athletic instructor at the Bryant College of Hard Knocks, and a winner of the best girl athlete medal given by the Norton Y. W. C. A.

"Theodora Penesis is now teaching the art of making and selling soft drinks, particularly milk shakes, at the Penesis School of Self-instruction, in Whiteville.

"Ruth Rankin and Helen Shepard have made possible the aviation line between Mansfield and Norton, by showing that a plane properly equipped and managed can make the trip more quickly than the busses that formerly made this hazardous run.

"Marion Valente has just returned home from an extended trip to Southern California, where she wrote up the orange and lemon situation and her solution of the problem. The publication was printed in the 'Mansfield Bugler' of May, 1940."

"Yes, John, you have named them all, except one, if I remember rightly. Tell me, where is Johnny Houghton?"

"Oh, yes, John Houghton. Why he is right nearby. It seems strange that you haven't seen him. He is a member of the London police force, a protector of law and order, and known as London's most bashful police officer."

After bidding John Holmes good night I was assailed by a flood of memories. I thought of the happy life and wonderful times we had all had in those fine old days in the Mansfield High School, and was exceedingly glad that all of my old classmates had made good in their chosen fields.

Presentation of Class Gift

By IRVING GREEN

In behalf of the Class of 1929, it gives me real pleasure to present this particularly appropriate gift to the Mansfield High School.

We have acquired so many valuable trophies in the past, that it has become almost a necessity to possess a fitting receptacle for them. This handsome mahogany cabinet will not only hold the souvenirs of our past victories, but will in future years contain many additional gifts, the reward of our successors' prowess in the fields of elocution and sport.

A brief history of the trophies to be placed in this cabinet will be of interest, both to our schoolmates and to the former High School graduates.

The first, in point of age, is the baseball trophy won by the Boy Cadets of 1903 and 1904 at Oak Bluffs. This was awarded them for their two years' successive victories over the Brockton, Fall River, and Taunton cadets. Another is the cup won by Mansfield three years out of five in the Singleton contest. This year the boys' champion basketball team has won two cups: one presented by the Brockton Y. M. C. A., and the other by the Hockamock League. In our collection another cup was the one which the Mansfield A. A. gave to the boys' football team of 1928. For the inter-scholastic activities, a trophy was won by the Girl Cadets in 1909, a cup by the girls' bat ball team of 1919, and two cups were won at the girls' inter-class gymnastic meets.

This gift carries with it sincere wishes from the Class of 1929 for the future success of the Mansfield High School.

Acceptance of Class Gift

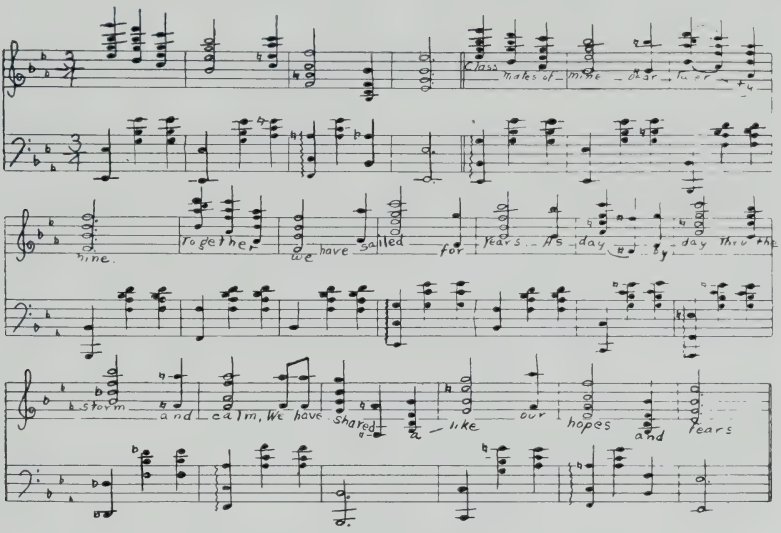
By WARREN PIERCE, '30

On behalf of the undergraduates of Mansfield High School, I wish to express to you their thanks for and appreciation of your fine gift. It will provide a much needed repository for protecting and displaying trophies won by our school. It will long remain to incoming classes as a reminder of your thoughtfulness of the needs of Mansfield High School.

Class Ode 1929

Words by Carol Edson McRae

Music by Marshall Otis Shepardson



Class mates of mine, dear Twenty-nine,
Together we've sailed for years,
As day by day, through the storm and calm,
We have shared alike our hopes and fears.

For intertwined were all our lives,
Our duties, studies, joys, and griefs,
As we steered our bark, with friendly aid,
Down the smiling stream with its hidden reefs.

Now have we reached the ocean wide,
Whereon each one a craft must launch,
Since each for himself a ship must guide—
On the voyage of life, a captain staunch.

We who tonight sail forth with hope,
Have each a port to lose or gain—
God grant that for us the beacon lights
May safely guide us across life's main.

Salutatory

By MILDRED ELLEN NORDBERG

Parents, teachers, and friends, we extend to you a most cordial welcome tonight, a night that means much to us, for we are indeed about to sail "out of the harbor onto the deep". As we lift anchor, it gives us pleasure that you have come to bid us "Godspeed" and that your best wishes will follow us.

During our four years of high school life we have learned the same lessons, shared the same privileges, and enjoyed the same opportunities. Now each of us is to embark upon a separate route, though our eyes are turned towards the same port—success. As we come to the end of our high school course, we realize the privileges and opportunities that have been ours. We are filled with deep gratitude to those who have made our crossing possible. We know that in many parts of the world each year young people are setting forth on the voyage of life with little preparation. And we are not unmindful of the fact that we are very fortunate in comparison with the youth of our own land in past generations. Years ago high school education was not truly public in our own country. Boys only were allowed to attend public schools, while girls must either secure tutors or attend private schools. How grateful we are tonight that we have shared the benefits of the wonderful progress that education has made! It is a long way from the little log cabin school of colonial days to our present system, with its junior and senior high schools, state colleges, private universities, and professional schools. We are thankful to those who had the vision to see that education was a necessary and vital part of this country's democracy. We are grateful to those who foresaw that teachers must be carefully trained, and that curriculums must be broadened.

To the citizens of this great country, and especially to the citizens of our own town, who make schools possible through self-imposed taxation, we would express our gratitude. We would extend our thanks to our parents, who have so loyally supported us, and who, through their guidance and thoughtfulness, have made it possible for us to set forth so well equipped. And teachers, we are grateful to you, for it is through you that the training and equipment have reached us.

So parents, teachers, and friends, on behalf of the Class of 1929, it gives me great pleasure to thank you and to welcome you to our graduation. May we fully meet the expectations of all of you who are here tonight to bid us "Bon Voyage".

Valedictory

By ALICE MARY GIBB BURR

Tonight marks the end of our life together as the Class of 1929. Tomorrow we sail forth out of the harbor onto the deep. It is a happy time for us, but we are sobered, perhaps a little frightened, when we think of the experiences and responsibilities which lie before us. We are comforted, however, by the thought that we have not been working in vain while waiting in the sheltered harbor. Our years in school have been preparing us for this great adventure—the aim of which is self-fulfillment and service to the world.

Facts, principles, and theories which we have assimilated will, we know, help us to guide our craft over this great expanse called Life. Nor is the great deep entirely uncharted for us. Many of the dangers have been pointed out to us. We have been taught to distinguish between the false and the true and to rely upon ourselves.

The years in school have given us a glimpse of the sea of life which lies beyond the harbor. Science has shown us the magnitude of life; history has taught us the progress of civilization; social sciences have enlightened us concerning the present; and cultural subjects have given us ideals of beauty and of behavior. Indeed we set forth equipped infinitely better than many of the great explorers who have attained so gloriously the port of self-fulfillment and service, of whom Christopher Columbus and Abraham Lincoln are noteworthy examples.

Within our hands has been placed a compass, the four main points of which bear the letters "P" for perseverance, "C" for cooperation, "L" for loyalty, and "H" for honesty.

Classmates, our happy times in Mansfield High School come to a close this evening, and we must say "Farewell". Let us not in overconfidence forget our training, and let us not in overtimidity be afraid; for we know that we are setting out on our voyage not unequipped. If we remember to apply what we have learned and to guide our lives by our compass, we shall anchor safely in the coveted port.

"The long, long anchorage we leave,
The ship is clear at last, she leaps!
She swiftly courses from the shore,
Joy, shipmate, joy!"

ATHLETICS

Basketball

The Basketball team started with a rush, and swept to the top of the Hockamock league. In addition, they were victors of a number of games played outside of the league, and won the championship of Class B in the tournament at Brockton. Altogether it was a record season.

The players all cooperated with the result that the team was one of the best in the state.

On March 18 the townsfolk and students assembled in the Town Hall for the purpose of showing their appreciation of the team's fine work. The following were awarded gold basket-balls: Manager Houghton, Captain Irving Green, Bernard Jalbert, Bud Cooney, Nickey Rossi, Cyril Bellavance, Edward Sehron, H. Houghton, Michael Julian, and William DiGiovanni.

Girls' Basketball

Although the girls' basketball team was not so successful as those of recent years, credit must be given the girls for their hard work and also for their regular appearance at practice.

The candidates were called out, and more than thirty-five reported. From this group the team which was to represent the school was selected.

Before the regular season began, class teams were picked and class games played. Those making their class teams were awarded numerals. The seniors were the champions, winning every game. The class team was composed of Dorothy O'Connor, Captain; Thelma Williams, Irene Morse, Marion Valente, Marie Leary, and Carol MacRae.

The regular schedule was cut practically in half; there were only five games played in all. This was very unusual, as in every other year at least thirteen games have been played. The opposing teams were the Alumnae, Stoughton, North Attleboro, Malden, and Foxboro.

Those who received the school letters were Capt. Irene Morse,

The team will lose by graduation Irene Morse, Dorothy O'Connor, Carol MacRae, and Marion Valente.

Football

The team that started the football season was almost entirely green; but, thanks to the efforts of Coach Kelley and the determination of the boys, the team fast became one of the best ever put out by the High School.

Summary of the Games

Led by Henry Houghton, the team proved that it possessed a fine sense of sportsmanship.

The Rotary Club gave the boys a testimonial banquet at the Tavern. The guests of honor were Superintendent Woods, Principal Robinson, and William Doyle. This banquet was followed by one at the school on January 17, at which the following received football letters and sweaters: Captain Henry Houghton, Cyril Bellavance, Manager John Cody, Edward Sehron, Bernard Jalbert, Herbert Dunbar, Frank Griswold, Rhoderic Ring, Joseph Chippola, Michael Julian, Wallace Morrison, Herbert Stearns, William DiGiovanni, Charles Buck, Nickey Rossi, and Frances Murphy.

After the banquet the boys chose Cyril Bellavance to captain them next year. The team will lose by graduation Henry Houghton, John Cody, Edward Sehron, Herbert Dunbar, Bernard Jalbert, and Frank Griswold.

A request is made at this time of the alumni of Mansfield High School. Interest in the association is very low; and unless some enthusiasm is aroused immediately, especially among the younger graduates, it will be necessary for the organization to disband. All alumni are urgently requested to co-operate and to attend every meeting, in order that this association may continue!
